

Spring Attribute Cards

These cards are designed to help your students work on naming objects that fit given attributes. Read each card and talk about how the object on the card fits the attribute listed. For example, talk about how an egg will break if you drop it on the floor. Ask your student if he/she has ever seen an egg break. Then ask your student to think of 3 more things that have the same attribute. In this case, have your student think of 3 more things that can break easily. There are 24 different cards included in this download, so you can target 24 different attributes. You can also use these cards to target spring vocabulary. If your students have difficulty thinking of enough items for each category, you can give them hints by describing something else that would have the desired attribute.
